Rotary Leadership Institute Philosophy and Facts

"Having leadership skills does not alone assure good Rotary leadership. An effective Rotary leader must ALSO have Rotary knowledge, perspective about where Rotary has been, where it is now going and a vision of what Rotary can be."

Why do we need a Leadership Institute?

Rotary needs a constant influx of leadership as club officer's, and leadership change every year. It is difficult at the club level to learn enough about the exciting world of Rotary with its 1.2 million members in more than 200 countries and geographical areas.

Furthermore, leadership skills in a voluntary organization are often different from business leadership skills. It is important that club leaders have every opportunity for education because the success or failure of our club depends in large part on the quality of their leaders.

What are our courses?

The Institute offers a Leadership Course in three full days (Parts I, II, III). Those completing each part are eligible for the next part. The courses are designed to provide Rotary knowledge and to develop leadership skills for volunteer organizations. Some examples of course sessions include:

“Rotary Beyond the Club”.,
“The Rotary Foundation” (2 parts),
“Membership Development and Retention” (2 parts), “Leadership” (4 parts).,
Creating Hands on Service Projects”,
“Vocational Service,
“International Service”,
“Analyzing a Rotary Club”,
“Creative Service”,
“Public Relations”,
“Public Speaking”
and other subjects.

Who are the faculty?

The faculty members are carefully selected by the Institute for their teaching abilities. They are drawn from all areas of the member districts and occasionally from outside the member districts. Many are present and past directors, present and past district governors, successful past presidents and those with experience in special areas.

Each new faculty member must attend an initial full day training program and various periodic reorientation programs. The results of course evaluations help the Institute to improve the course content and instruction.

What are the teaching methods?

The Institute believes in course sessions with as much discussion/participation as possible.

Discussion breakout sessions are limited to approximately 15 persons. Lectures are strictly limited.

Course methods include discussion groups, role playing, problem solving workshops and creating projects.

Everyone participates during one of the Institutes sessions. A course Workbook containing an Institute Manual Session program agendas, faculty listings and course outlines and materials is provided to each attendee.

Who should be nominated to attend the Institute courses?

The Institute recommends that clubs nominate those Rotarians who appear to have the potential for club leadership, not necessarily as future presidents. They should preferably be at least 3-4 years away from a possible presidency or other key leadership post. Candidates should certainly have a strong interest in Rotary and be ready to be exposed to the larger world of Rotary. The institute requests each club to nominate one or two Rotarians each year and to support previous nominees in completing Parts II and III.

Should our club participate?

If your club cares about its future, it will want the best leadership possible. This is an outstanding opportunity for each club to improve the Rotary knowledge of its key people, who will also be exposed to new ideas of leadership.

What is the Graduate Program?

After completing the three part basic program, “graduates” are eligible to attend in-depth seminars held at selected locations in conjunction with regular courses. Seminar topics and registration forms will be provided

When and where are the courses held?

Courses will be held in various locations throughout the District for the convenience of our club leaders.
